rence, Arizona.

In cases C 09-2474 PJH (PR) and C 09-2628 PJH (PR), on the day the complaints were filed the clerk notified plaintiff that he had not paid the filing fees or applied for leave to proceed in forma pauperis ("IFP").

On the day the complaint in C 09-2475 PJH (PR) was filed, the clerk notified plaintif that his application to proceed IFP was deficient in that he had failed to use the correct form, had not provided a certificate of funds in inmate account as required by this court, and had not attached a printout of transactions in his inmate account as required by 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(2).
In all three cases plaintiff has filed an application to proceed IFP, but all three
